

The answer to technological evolution

Do you wonder how your organization copes with new technology and market development? Digitalisation, mobility and disruptive start-ups are able to test the business in a severe way. On the other hand, they offer opportunities to optimize service for customers, to streamline an organization and to relieve employees. Which development do you embrace, and how?

Contact Consulting helps you, with professionals for business and IT. We advise you on the ICT strategy and on the selection of for example an ERP- or an e-commerce platform. We also help you to increase your results on projects and to enlarge data information. Since our start in 1999 we received success, results and appreciation from our clients.

Forward by connecting

Contact Consulting is your gateway to an extensive network of professionals with specific knowledge and years of experience. Known for their results in branches like retail, construction industry, logistics and en business services. We believe in the strength and diversity of this network.

By merging expertise's we effectively solve issues of a multidisciplinary character. The result? Your team excels, the business takes advantage. Forward by connecting, that's the power of our network.

Passion for progress

Every issues demands its own approach and expertise. For that reason we have a close look for the best professional to fit the assignment. Everyone at Contact Consulting works with the same core values. Our experts have a passion for progress and their goal is to establish a tight and durable relationship with the client.

Satisfied clients

Among our clients are appealing names in retail, construction industry, logistics and business services. We are proud working together with them and find them satisfied. On this page you find a selection of our clients and read what they say about us.

Do you want to know more?

Should you want to know more about Contact Consulting, our people, our way of working? Or are you interested in how we can help you? Feel free to contact Feel free to contact us via info@kontakt.nl or phone: +31 (0)88 – 303 1100. We would be pleased to meet you.